▼ Item Description

Please read the Item Characteristics for important listing details.

Cool rare box of 318 Wesley Richards. Still factory sealed!

Yes, I will ship to the whacky law states. However, you MUST supply me with either the proper paperwork that explains you are allowed to buy/receive/own ammo, or an FFL address that is okay with shipments from strangers.

Now accepting credit and debit cards at NO EXTRA CHARGE. Stuff is expensive enough, no need to nickel and dime folks... It's just greedy and rude!

Copy paste spiel:

The ripping people off ends here! I have declared war on the price gougers, and the only way to beat them is to undercut them.... So I did! If you see any of my fixed price items cheaper elsewhere, let me know and I'll beat it.

Another thing I want to do differently is actually take care of my return customers. Why do all of the websites out there only offer a discount to NEW buyers, then stop the coupons once you're a customer? That doesn't compute with me. Repeat business should be rewarded, that is why I offer a 5% off discount to any and all returning customers. I appreciate you!

Please understand, I am one man handling an operation that spans multiple online marketplaces, as well as in person venues. Not to mention all of the traveling that must be done to acquire new and interesting items! 90% of the time, your package goes out the day after I receive payment. However, there will be times when it may take an extra day or two depending on volume.

I do not believe in overcharging for shipping. Have a look around my other items and if you like something else, chances are it can be added into your package for no extra shipping charge.

If you're interested in multiple items ending throughout the week (or two) I will gladly keep an "open box" to add to and save on shipping. Just let me know!

I'm always willing to listen to offers or trades of silver/gold, milsurps and ammo. For bullion trades, you will be credited an honest value depending on the items. I will not arrogantly offer you spot price (or lower) for your bullion like some pawn shop scumbag... That said, generics will be closer to spot pricing, but government backed coins or rarer collectables I will credit a premium over spot. Bullion will be tested on my sigma pro (precious metals verifier) to confirm authenticity before your item is dispatched.

Please do not bid or buy unless you are allowed to own the item. Everything is sold as is, and I make no guarantees other than what is stated in the listing. Caveat emptor. By making a purchase, you are certifying that you are allowed to acquire and possess the item, and there are no local laws that prohibit you from doing so.
