$0.00

If you haven't heard of Dakota (now Parkwest Arms), they were a firearms company that put together some of the finest hunting rifles stateside. This Dakota 97 is in like new condition and was a safe queen for years, but the price will reflect its used status quite generously. If you have seen my other ads, you know I sell for a crazy low price to move things fast. People flip my stuff all the time.

The scope is a swarovski 4-12x50 habicht. The glass is extremely clear and the reticle is the simpler cross variety. If you do not want the optic with the rifle, I will knock 750 off of the price. I can also sell the optic separately for 750.

I am including a couple boxes of ammunition with this gun. I can include quite a bit more for a price per round that is lower than market.

- XX grade walnut stock, 13 5/8" length of pull
- Panel hand-cut checkering
- Two inletted swivels
- Deluxe recoil pad
- Individually pillar bedded
- Drilled and tapped for 8-40 scope base screws
- 300WM. Comes with ammo.
- 4-12x50 swarovski scope
- talley bases and rings
- Comes with the overbuilt browning travel case for free. Over $200 value.

These rifles go for 4,000 new when you can find them. This particular rifle was insured by a relative for 5,000 with its optic pre-covid. The optic goes for 1,000 new. The case goes for 250 new. That's included FREE. I have several hundred rounds of quality hunting ammo we can add or subtract. I will include a couple boxes for FREE and sell all ammo for under lowest market rate.

$--> My used price is $2,900 for the rifle and $750 for the optic together ($3,600 total price) Feel free to make me an offer.

$--> Accept trades and partial trades for military surplus and revolvers only. I'd go 1:1 on an MR73 or a Korth. Not interested in any bolt action hunting rifles. I don't hunt, this was an heirloom. I might also be interested in a bass guitar, a quality flintlock pistol, or other odd things.

*--> Text me for the fastest response. 210-771-9135. Thanks.
