

Search

Bolt Rifle

Back to List < Previous Gun > < Next Gun >

WINCHESTER 375 H&H MODEL 70 by MOUNTAIN RIFLES INC. - POST-64 MODEL 70 - CONTROLLED ROUND FEED - QD LEVER PIVOT MOUNTS - LEUPOLD 1.5 x 5 - Open Sights - Composite Stock - Removable Muzzle Brake - Set-Up for Rough Hunting

Style:	Caliber:	Price:
Bolt Rifle	375 H&H	$2,900.00

#G72608, Winchester 375 H&H From Mountain Rifles, Inc., Built by the Owner Dana Campbell of Palmer, Alaska in 1994, A Post-64 Model 70 Action with Controlled Round Feed Claw Extractor, 25" barrel with a removable Boss muzzle brake, 24" barrel without the brake, Island rear sight base with a fully adjustable folding sight, Band front ramp with a lock-on sight protector, Standard Model 70 trigger like the pre-64, Standard Model 70 hinged floorplate, Quick detachable single lever pivot mounts with 1" rings, Mounted Leupold 1.5 x 5, A black composite stock by Pacific Research, Quite good grip checkering, Sling eyes on the stock, 13 7/16" LOP over a 3/4" pad, 7 lbs. 3 oz. as an open sighted rifle and 8 lbs. 1 oz. with the QD scope, It retains 98% of the factory satin blue, The stock is as new, The bore is as new. This rifle is ready to go on any rough hunt with both open and scope sights. This rifle is African proven with excellent results.

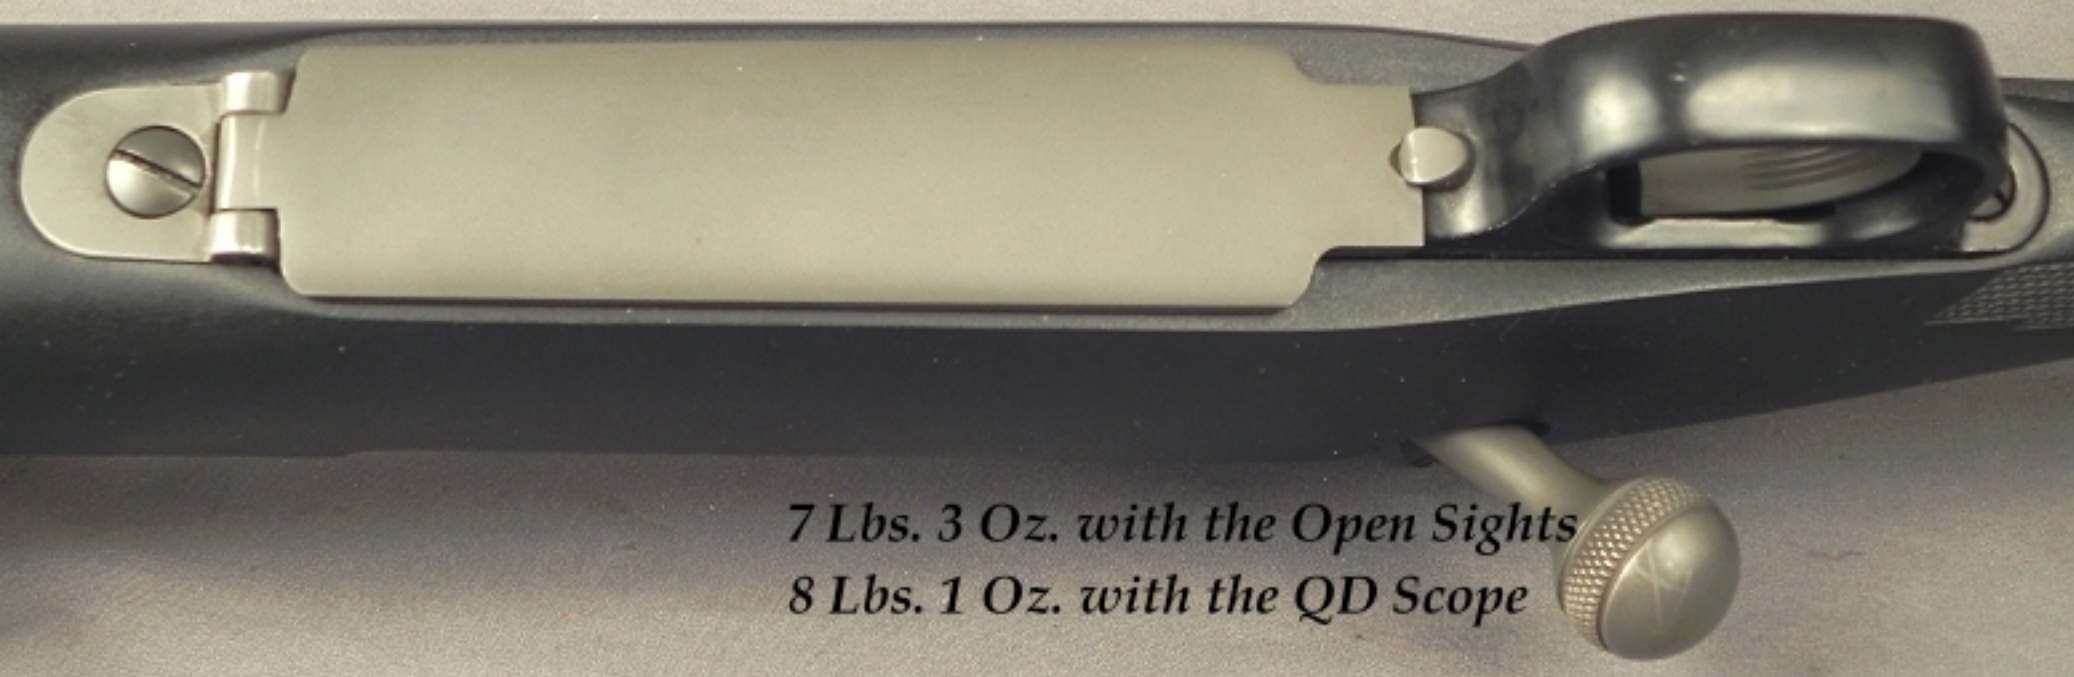

Winchester 375 H&H by Dana Campbell at Mountain Rifles Inc. in Palmer, Alaska

*Post-64 Model 70 with a Claw Extractor
Made in 1994 - African Proven*

Quick Detachable Single Lever Pivot Mounts

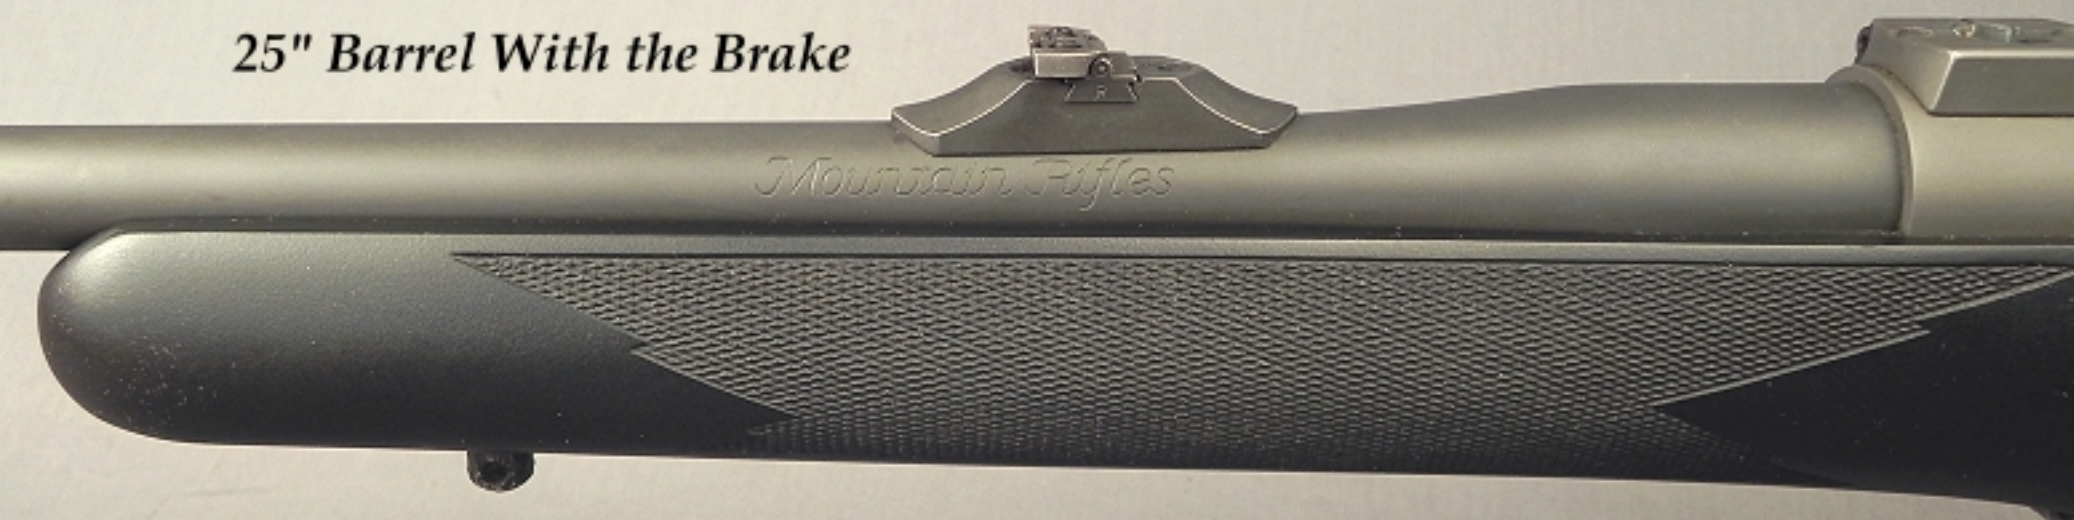

*7 Lbs. 3 Oz. with the Open Sights
8 Lbs. 1 Oz. with the QD Scope*

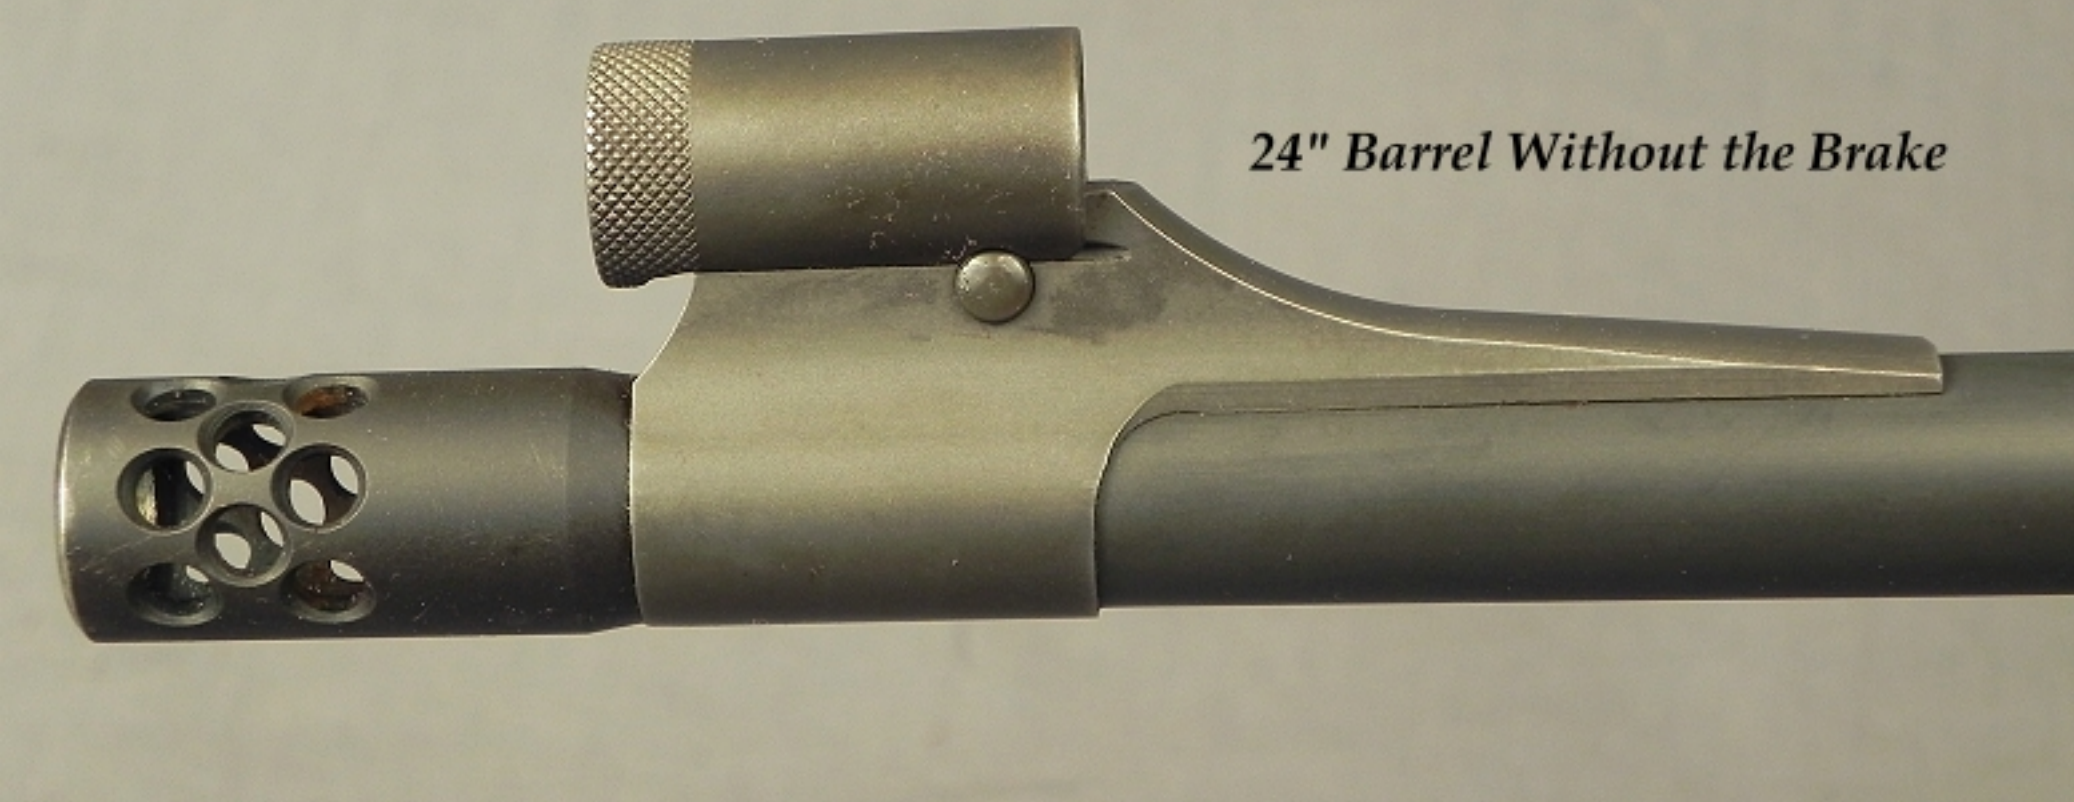

13 7/16" LOP

Pacific Research Stock

25" Barrel With the Brake

24" Barrel Without the Brake

Return to Latest Guns main page