Now this is a big boy toy. Maybe you're going to the safari for some very large game, maybe you just want to impress your friends, or maybe you just want an absolutely gorgeous double rifle. Then this is for you. You're bidding on a Sabatti Safari chambered in 450/400 Nitro Express. Sabatti is an italian company producing expertly crafted firearms. This firearm is used, and comes in the original hard case *note: this case does have a smell of cigarettes unfortunately. On the upside, this firearm is in fantastic condition showing very minimal signs of wear, with the exception of the aftermarket limbsaver pad being worn *see pictures. Bid happy knowing that you're getting a stellar piece of engineering, and gaining the ability to go on that safari hunt you've always been wanting to take. If you have any questions or would like any additional pictures, please feel free to reach out to me and I will respond as quickly as possible.

All items are sold with a 2-day non-fired, non-disasembled inspection period. This is so you can determine that the firearm you received is as described in the listing. If for whatever reason you choose to disassemble the firearm and mistakenly break something or cannot get it back together, this is not covered under this inspection period. We do our best to accuratly describe the firearm before your purchase to prevent any discrepancies.

Note* Please allow us up to 2 business days to process your purchase and received payment before we ship the firearm. We are a business with a storefront so this will help us continue to properly manage our store as well as properly manage your purchase. Also, please make sure to forward us a copy of the receiving FFL to prevent any further delays.
