The “Walter Paul” shop has been located on Osterstrasse since 1907. Initially, Walter Paul, who came to Hameln from Solingen, had to share the business premises of his grinding shop with a shoe shop, as Christa Koch reported in a DEWEZET report from July 6, 2009 . The son of the business founder (also named Walter) learned the gunsmith trade in Suhl and became a master craftsman. They only sold weapons, such as cutlery and metal tools for butchery needs.
